Damage to vehicle

Car burnt out at the Watergrove Reservoir car park.

No reported burglary.

Sarah will be sending out letters to homes in the area where incidents have occurred.

Correspondence: - Eddie has received a letter of resignation from Bernice. Changes in personal circumstances have brought about her decision to leave Wardle Society. The input and efforts from Bernice over the years will be sadly missed by the members.

Pennine Township: - Notification of next meeting of Pennine Township Ward Consultation will be held at Wardle and Smallbridge Community Centre on 14th November at 7pm. This meeting gives residents the opportunity to raise concerns and issues with senior officers of the Council. More information is available at local libraries.

A letter from Bernice on information from last Pennine Township meeting in July gives data on local libraries. Wardle library has increased attendance to 60%. Entrance facilities will be improved and a disabled toilet will be installed and surroundings redecorated.

Treasurers Report: – see attached

Planning: – Nothing to report from the yellow sheets.

Moorend Trust: - AGM to be held 26th November at Littleborough Cricket Club 6.30pm start.

Wardle in Bloom: –. Awaiting details from George on the judging results held in July. George has applied to Pennine Township for funding for bulbs, planters etc. He has been given £1000 for this project.

It was suggested we discuss the possibility of separating Wardle in Bloom from Wardle Society at our next meeting.

Footpaths: - Nothing to report.

Any Other Business: - Due to Bernice retiring from Wardle Society there is need to sort out keys for the Community building.

Next meeting 1st November 2007 at 7pm, all welcome.
